Re: Cesay v. Document Technologies, Inc.
07 Civ. 11268

Dear Judge Stein:

As you know, our firm represents the Plaintiff in the above-referenced action. In accordance with our discussion with your clerk Laura Blakely, please accept this letter as a formal request for an adjournment of the scheduling conference.

We have not been able to serve the defendant because they no longer have business offices in New York. As a result, we have commenced service through the Secretary of State. Because this process takes some time, we would suggest that that conference be adjourned for approximately six (6) weeks. By such point, we would expect that Defendant will be in receipt of the Complaint and able to appear. We will, of course, endeavor to accommodate whatever schedule the court deems most appropriate.

Please accept our apologies for not attending the conference. It appears that the ECF records for this case have an incorrect e-mail address for our firm. As a result, we did not receive notice of the conference. We are attempting to have this matter corrected promptly, and accept responsibility for not observing the error on the docket sheet.

Please feel free to contact our firm if you have any questions or require additional information. We tried to determine whether or not outside counsel has been assigned, but without success. As a result, defendant's in-house team has been contacted and copied on this letter.

The conference is adjourned to 3/28/08, at 10:30 a.m.

SO ORDERED 2/13/08

Sincerely,

THE BOYD LAW GROUP, PLLC
